MINI YULETIDE STOCKING CHART

PATTERN DETAILS

I am so thrilled to share the chart for my Mini Yuletide Box It Stocking with you! I know that lots of people are intimidated by mosaic charts so thought I'd share this one with you so that you can have a go to see if you prefer them to the written pattern :) For the Toe, Heel and Cuff you will need to work from the written pattern either on the blog or by purchasing the PDF. Here's where you can find those:

CHART READING

Use one colour per round, indicated on the right of the chart. Work a sc in the blo unless there is an 'X' in the chart. An 'X' indicates a Mdc for that stitch.

IMPORTANT NOTE - splitting for the heel

To split for the heel Round 11 works firstly into the 8 Fsc of Round 10. Work all sc into the blo of the Fsc. If required to work a Mdc into a Fsc, it is placed into the chain at the base of the stitch.

The remaining 16 sts are worked as usual into the stitches of either Round 10 or 9 as necessary.

I can't wait to see your stockings! Do come and join us in the HanJan Community to show us :)
